ANNUAL REPORT TO THE PRESIDENT AND THE CONGRESS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Message from the Secretary of Defense ................................................................. 1
  A New Imperative: Winning the War While Transforming the Force
  Charting a New Course: The First Year
  Accelerating Transformation
  Managing Risks
  Conclusion

Part I: Annual Report from the Secretary of Defense

  Section A: Fashioning a New Approach to Defense................................. 7

    Chapter 1: Reassessing the Security Environment ................................. 9
      America’s Role in the World
      U.S. Interests and Objectives
      A Changed Security Environment
      Current Security Trends
      Key Military-Technical Trends

    Chapter 2: Charting a New Strategic Course ...................................... 17
      Defense Policy Goals
      Strategic Tenets
      New Framework for Managing Risks

    Chapter 3: Fighting the War on Terror .............................................. 25
      Launching a War on Terrorism
      First Engagement: Liberating Afghanistan and Denying Terrorists Sanctuary
      Initial Lessons Learned
Section B: Reducing Force Management Risk ................................................................. 33

Chapter 4: Investing in People and Readiness .......................................................... 35
  Manpower and Personnel
  The Civilian Human Resource Strategy
  Leveraging Civilian Experience of Reserve Component Personnel
  A New Compact with Warfighters
  Readiness and Training
    Readiness
    Training the Force
  Health Issues
    Force Health Protection
    Reserve Healthcare
    Healthcare Delivery
    TRICARE

Section C: Reducing Operational Risk ...................................................................... 47

Chapter 5: Sizing and Selectively Modernizing Forces for an Era of Uncertainty ................................................................. 49
  Force Planning Construct and Missions
  Defense of the United States
    Deter Forward
    Major Combat Operations
    Smaller-Scale Contingencies
    Current Forces
  Force Elements
    Land Forces
    Aviation Forces
    Naval Forces
    Mobility Forces
    Special Operations Forces
  Reserve Components in the Total Force
Section D: Reducing Future Challenges Risk .................................................. 65

Chapter 6: Transforming the Force ............................................................... 67
  Accelerating Transformation
  Focusing Transformation Efforts on Six Operational Goals
    Protecting Critical Bases of Operations and Defeating
      Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical Weapons
    Projecting and Sustaining Forces in Anti-Access
      Environments
    Denying Enemy Sanctuary
  Leveraging Information Technology
  Assuring Information Systems and Conducting
    Information Operations
  Enhancing Space Capabilities
  Transformation Pillars
  Experimentation and New Concepts of Operation
  Equipping Forces for 21st Century Challenges
  Robust Science and Technology Procurement
    Science and Technology

Chapter 7: Adapting U.S. Strategic Forces ................................................. 83
  The New Triad
  Elements of the New Triad
  Creating the New Triad
  Adopting a New Approach to Strategic Force Reductions

Chapter 8: Investing in Space, Information and Intelligence ..................... 93
  Space, Information and Intelligence Objectives
  Space Systems
  Global Network
  Intelligence Initiatives
  Making Space, Information and Intelligence Systems
    More Robust and Secure
Section E: Reducing Institutional Risk .................................................................103

Chapter 9: Increasing Effectiveness Through Accountability and Efficiency .................................................................105

  Modernizing Business Processes
  Improving the Management of Acquisition, Technology and Logistics
  Achieving Acquisition and Technology Excellence
  Charting A New Acquisition Course
  Achieving Logistics Excellence
  Sizing and Modernizing DoD Installations and Facilities
  Reshaping Infrastructure—Efficient Facilities Initiative
  Facilities’ Sustainment, Restoration, and Modernization
  Facilities’ Strategic Plan
  Improving the Quality of Military Housing
  Spurring the Defense Industrial Base

Part II: Service Secretary Statutory Reports

  Report of the Secretary of the Army .................................................................117
  Report of the Secretary of the Navy .................................................................127
  Report of the Secretary of the Air Force ..........................................................139
  Secretary’s Introduction to the Report of the Chairman of the Reserve Forces Policy Board .........................................................149
  Report of the Chairman of the Reserve Forces Policy Board ..........................153
Appendices

A. Budget Tables........................................................................................................163

B. Goldwater-Nichols Act ........................................................................................165

C. Justifications for FY 2002 DoD Committees Subject to the Federal Advisory Committee
   (To be provided under separate cover) .................................................................181

D. Resources Allocated to Mission and Support Activities.................................183

E. Unit Deployments and Personnel Tempo
   (To be provided under separate cover) .................................................................195

Reports that are not part of the Annual Report to the President and the Congress that are to be provided under separate cover.

A. Department of Defense Organizational Charts
B. Personnel Tables
C. Personnel and Readiness Factors by Race and Gender
D. National Security and the Law of the Sea Convention
E. Freedom of Navigation
F. Government Performance and Results Act
G. Information Technology Management Goals
H. Foreign Military Assistance