IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. CHAMBLISS (for himself and Mr. NELSON of Nebraska) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on

A BILL

To amend title 10, United States Code, to provide for the establishment of a unified combatant command for military intelligence, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Military Intelligence
5 Reorganization Act of 2005”.

6 SEC. 2. UNIFIED COMBATANT COMMAND FOR MILITARY IN-
7 TELLIGENCE.

8 (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 6 of title 10, United 9 States Code, is amended by inserting after section 167a
10 the following new section:

1 “§ 167b. Unified combatant command for military in-
2 telligence

3 “(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—(1) With the advice and as-
4 sistance of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the 5 President, through the Secretary of Defense, shall estab-
6 lish under section 161 of this title a unified combatant
7 command for military intelligence (hereinafter in this sec-
8 tion referred to as the ‘military intelligence command’).

9 “(2) The principle functions of the military intel-
10 ligence command are—

11 “(A) to coordinate the military intelligence ac-
12 tivities that support the Director of National Intel-
13 ligence;

14 “(B) to represent the Department of Defense
15 within the intelligence community under the Director
16 of National Intelligence;

17 “(C) to ensure that intelligence collection re-
18 quirements for the armed forces are communicated
19 to, and the fulfillment of such requirements are co-
20 ordinated with, the Director of National Intelligence;

21 “(D) to coordinate all military intelligence ac-
22 tivities; and

4 be assigned to the military intelligence command.

5 “(2) Unless otherwise directed by the Secretary of 6 Defense, the civilian personnel of the elements of the De-7 partment of Defense referred to in subsection (i)(2) shall 8 be under the military intelligence command.

9 “(c) GRADE OF COMMANDER.—(1) The commander
10 of the military intelligence command shall hold the grade
11 of general or, in the case of an officer of the Navy, admiral
12 while serving in that position, without vacating that offi-
13 cer’s permanent grade. The commander of such command
14 shall be appointed by the President, by and with the con-
15 sent of the Senate, for service in that position.

16 “(2) The officer appointed as commander of the mili-
17 tary intelligence command shall not, while serving in that 18 position, be counted against the numbers and percentages 19 of officers of the grade of that officer authorized for the 20 armed force of that officer.

21 “(d) DUTIES OF COMMANDER.—Unless otherwise di-22 rected by the President or the Secretary of Defense, the 23 commander of the military intelligence command shall—

1 “(1) carry out intelligence collection and anal-
2 ysis activities in response to requests from the Di-
3 rector of National Intelligence;

4 “(2) serve as the principle advisor to the Sec-
5 retary of Defense, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs
6 of Staff, and the Director of National Intelligence on 7 all matters relating to military intelligence; and

8 “(3) discharge any responsibilities assigned to 9 the commander under section 427(b) of this title.

10 “(e) AUTHORITY OF COMMANDER.—(1) In addition 11 to the authority prescribed in section 164(c) of this title, 12 the commander of the military intelligence command shall 13 be responsible for, and shall have the authority to conduct,
14 all affairs of the command relating to military intelligence
15 activities.

16 “(2) The commander of the military intelligence com-
17 mand shall be responsible for, and shall have the authority 18 to conduct, the following functions relating to military in-19 telligence activities:

20 “(A) Developing strategy, doctrine, and tactics.

23 ligence activities.

1 “(J) Formulating and submitting requirements
2 to other commanders of the unified combatant com-
3 mands to support military intelligence activities.

4 “(3) The commander of the military intelligence com-
5 mand shall be responsible for—

6 “(A) ensuring that the military intelligence re-
7 quirements of the other unified combatant com-
8 manders are satisfied; and

9 “(B) responding to intelligence requirements
10 levied by the Director of National Intelligence.

11 “(4)(A) The commander of the military intelligence
12 command shall be responsible for, and shall have the au-
13 thority to conduct the development and acquisition of spe-
14 cialized technical intelligence capabilities.

15 “(B) Subject to the authority, direction, and control
16 of the Secretary of Defense, the commander of the com-
17 mand, in carrying out the function under subparagraph
18 (A), shall have authority to exercise the functions of the 19 head of an agency under chapter 137 of this title.

20 “(f) INSPECTOR GENERAL.—The staff of the com-
21 mander of the military intelligence command shall include 22 an inspector general who shall conduct internal audits and 23 inspections of purchasing and contracting actions through 24 the command and such other inspector general functions
25 as may be assigned.

1 “(g) BUDGET.—In addition to the activities of a com-
2 batant commander for which funding may be requested
3 under section 166(b) of this title, the budget proposal for 4 the military intelligence command shall include requests 5 for funding for—

6 “(1) development and acquisition of military in-7 telligence collection systems; and

8 “(2) acquisition of other material, supplies, or 9 services that are peculiar to military intelligence ac-
10 tivities.

11 “(h) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary of Defense shall 12 prescribe regulations for the activities of the military intel-
13 ligence command. The regulations shall include authoriza-14 tion for the commander of the command to provide for 15 operational security of military intelligence forces, civilian
16 personnel, and activities.
